Withholding Notice Information (Form W-4P/OMB. No. 1545-0074)

Basic Information About Withholding From Pensions and Annuities

Generally, Federal income tax withholding applies to payments made from pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, annuity and certain deferred compensation plans, IRAs, and commercial annuities. However, certain distributions from a Roth IRA are nontaxable and, therefore, are not subject to withholding.

Purpose of Form W-4P

Federal income tax will not be withheld from a Roth IRA distribution unless you elect to have such tax withheld. You can use Form W-4P or a substitute form, such as that contained on this form, furnished by the custodian, to make your withholding election.

For more information, please see Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, available from most IRS offices.

Caution: Remember that there are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, through either withholding or estimated tax payments. See Publication 505. It explains the estimated tax requirements and penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your IRA using Form W-4P or a substitute form.

Revoking Your Withholding Election

If you want to revoke your previously filed withholding election, file another Form W-4P with the Custodian and check the appropriate box on that form.

Statement of Income Tax Withheld from your Roth IRA

You will receive a tax form 1099-R from your Custodian showing the total amount of your Roth IRA distributions and the total Federal income tax withheld during the year.
