Your 2020 application guide

TOM J.
2019 Foresters Financial™ scholarship winner

The application deadline for the Foresters Competitive Scholarship program is February 27, 2020! Use the checklist below to help you stay on track.

Step 1: Check eligibility

- I am an eligible¹ Foresters Financial member, their spouse, child, grandchild or a person under their legal guardianship
- I have completed 40 hours of volunteer work between March 1, 2018 and February 27, 2020
- I have a GPA of at least 2.8 or a minimum Grade of 70%
- I am enrolling in a minimum 2-year, full-time program at a university, community college or vocational/trade school for Fall 2020

Step 2: Request documents

- Ask for an electronic transcript from my most recent school (high school or post-secondary)
- Ask for a written, personal recommendation from someone familiar with my volunteer experience

Quick tip: Personal recommendations can't be from a family member!

Step 3: Start application

- Visit foresters.com/scholarship to start my online application

Quick tip: Get started as soon as possible and add your documents as you receive them.

Step 4: Tell us about yourself

- Provide details and dates for community service I've been most involved in, specifically volunteering and extracurricular activities
- Write 250 words or less about my experience with a volunteer project, how it helped support my community and the impact it had.

Quick tip: Be sure to tell us why it was meaningful to you!

Step 5: Review and submit

- My application must be complete and submitted online by February 27, 2020

Quick tip: It's a good idea to submit documents and application early, so Foresters can alert you if anything is missing from your application!
